

IMCI + ALLIANCE™

Know-how and energy combined

Ing. Rogers Rodolfo Henríquez Torres, Chile

Welcome as Full Member to the IMCI+ Alliance*

A division of the IMCI+ Group Intl. Gmbh, Switzerland

Welcome – Zurich, 26.01.2026

It is a pleasure to welcome Ing. Rodolfo Henríquez Torres as a new Full Member of the IMCI+ Alliance.

Based in Chile — a strategically important country for our presence in LATAM — Rodolfo joins the Alliance as part of a global community built on trust, collegiality, and shared professional values. The IMCI+ Alliance is a space where experienced professionals come together not only to collaborate, but also to contribute knowledge, create meaningful partnerships, and build long-term professional relationships.

Rodolfo brings more than 15 years of experience in project development, commercial leadership, and investment advisory, with a strong background in real estate and international financing structures. As Founder & CEO of RH Investment SpA, and through his collaboration with DU Group, he adds valuable perspective and experience to our community.

We are delighted to welcome Rodolfo to the Alliance and look forward to working together in a spirit of mutual respect, collaboration, and shared growth.

IMCI+ Alliance

IMCI+ Alliance

The IMCI+ Alliance is a global advisory and investment ecosystem bringing together senior executives, industry experts, financiers, and strategic partners across more than 40 countries.

Built around the IMCI+ Group International platform, the Alliance operates as a trusted network for corporate finance, project finance, strategic advisory, and investment structuring, with a strong focus on mid- to large-scale transactions. Members combine deep sector expertise with local market access, enabling the Alliance to support clients both strategically and operationally.

The Alliance is particularly active in sectors such as infrastructure, renewable energy, sustainability, technology, real estate, healthcare, and industrial manufacturing, and works closely with institutional investors, family offices, banks, and alternative capital providers.

What distinguishes the IMCI+ Alliance is its multi-actor, hands-on approach: members are not only advisors, but often co-developers, directors, or long-term partners in projects. Engagement is governed by clear protocols, high ethical standards, and a strong emphasis on feasibility, bankability, and execution.

The IMCI+ Alliance is designed for professionals and organizations seeking impact, credibility, and long-term value creation within a disciplined and internationally connected framework.
